Second Sunday in Lent

February 27 & 28, 2010

Charged with Welcoming the Lord's Own

Luke 13:31-35

Verse 35 of this Gospel is very interesting: "I tell you, you will not see me again until you say 'Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord.'"

Are you always glad to see those who come in the name of the Lord? We can easily see that many are not. The Lord and His church are not as welcome in this land as they were when the gray hairs among us were young. Churches have trouble getting building permits. Why? The traffic! The noise! They don't fit into the master plan of the town. See how welcome you are if you set up a soapbox on Main Street and start praying loudly for a day or so. There is a move afoot to remove "under God" from the Pledge of Allegiance.

Well, admittedly, those are extreme cases. And they speak of how others answer that command. Jesus says "I tell you", and I picture His finger pointing at me. I am the one who must bless the one who comes in the name of the Lord. It is I, Lord, charged with welcoming your own. I and all of the I's who wish to see Him. If we wish to see God, we must welcome those who know Him and love Him.

Years ago, housewives cleaned their houses furiously before Christmas, preparing for the Lord's coming. It was almost an act of worship. They must put their best foot forward to receive the Christ Child. There's a lesson in that. Our habits, our friendships, our family relationships, our homes, can all be either inviting to one who comes in the Lord's name or not.

Dear Lord, burn an invitation on our lips. Open our arms and our hearts to your witnesses. Let us see your face. Amen

-Chris Goble

Holy Gospel: Luke 13:1-9

Welcome, Guests!

Here at Faith Community Lutheran...Here at Faith Community Lutheran...We almost always follow the traditional order of worship familiar to most Lutherans, but usually our services are a “blend” of old and new music. As Lutherans, we view ourselves as a church of “Word & Sacrament.” Therefore, “God’s Word” is held in high esteem as we follow lessons and sermon with our Bibles open. FCLC is among a growing number of Lutheran Churches committed to celebrating the Sacrament of Holy Communion every week.

As we are anointed with oil at Holy Communion today, we are reminded that we are all in need of healing in one way or another. Sometimes, it’s our bodies that need healing; sometimes it’s our feelings that are hurt; sometimes it’s our thinking that needs healing; sometimes it’s a relationship that is hurting; sometimes it’s our faith in God that needs healing. If you wish to share a prayer concern with us at that time, you are more than welcome.

Prayer Concerns Let us know how we can pray for you. Call the office: 303-776-8771.
